

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
APRIL 1, 2010 THROUGH JUNE 30, 2010

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast a "Community Calendar" and public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A half-hour bi-weekly public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33- Special and series reports focusing on important local issues. These reports air during selected CBS4 News broadcasts on WBFS-TV. Duration: Each part is approximately under three minutes. Broadcast times and dates indicated in the report.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS SPECIAL: IN YOUR COMMUNITY- This half-hour special looks back at some of the most compelling Neighbors 4 Neighbors "In Your Community" stories. Broadcast times and dates indicated in the report.

EDUCATION/FAMILY: Topics in this category include: teen violence prevention; child abuse; teen curfew; Special Olympics; edible gardens at local schools; prom season safety; youth mentoring; youth empowerment programs; classes for new fathers; School emergency procedures; and top “In Your Community” stories of help and hope.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 4/18, 10:30 AM. Rita Clark, from the Miami Coalition for the Homeless and Susan Ofstein, Redirection Coordinator for Child and Family Health Inc. discussed recent cases of teen violence and how the South Florida community is coming together in support of safer schools and neighborhoods. In another segment, Nelson Hincapie, Chief Executive Officer for Voices 4 Children discussed the increase in child abuse calls from South Florida into the state’s child abuse hotline and what his organization is doing during April’s Child Abuse Prevention Month to promote responsible parenting. 5/2, 10:30 AM. Lorenzo Thomas of WEDR radio station discussed an upcoming town hall meeting that the radio station is sponsoring to address teen violence prevention and the City of Miami’s teen curfew law. 5/2, 10:30 AM. Mark Thompson, Special Olympics Executive Director and Andy Miyares, Special Olympic Athlete discussed how the community can get involved in this year’s Special Olympics Competition. 5/16, 10:30 AM. Linda Lecht, President, Education Fund and Jeannie Necessary, Program Coordinator discussed the organization’s edible garden program at local public schools and how this idea has proven to help combat childhood obesity. In another segment, Claudia Bailly, South Florida Coalition Alliance & Maria Sabag, Parent Advocate, discussed their campaign to prevent teen drinking and illegal drug abuse during the high school prom season. In a third segment, Miami City Commissioner, the Reverend Richard Dunn and the Reverend Jerome Starling debated the pros and cons of the teen curfew law recently adopted by the City of Miami requiring police to arrest teens under 18 years old found on the streets without a parent between the hours of 11 PM and 6 AM on weeknights. 5/30, 10:30 AM. Albert Dotson Jr, Chairman 100 Black Men and Albert Tucker, Vice President of Multicultural Business Development for the Greater Ft. Lauderdale Visitors and Conventions Bureau discussed how the 100 Black Men organization was created to provide a platform for mentoring today’s youth and empower communities across the country.

EDUCATION/FAMILY: (continued)

6/13, 10:30 AM. Lionel Lightbourne, Inner City Fatherhood Consultant; Alison Austin, Chief Executive Officer, Belafonte TACOLCY Center and Elrod Phillips, a TACOLCY alumni discussed how their organization is helping young men find mentors to help them with important life decisions and stay out of trouble in the streets. They also mentioned a special Father's Day event that the TACOLCY is hosting to encourage male role models to volunteer with the children they serve. In another segment, Janine Balkin, RN and Teacher at South Miami Hospital and Gus Giral, New Dad discussed the Daddy Duties 101 class at South Miami Hospital that prepares expecting fathers for the basics of caring and nurturing their newborns.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: I-TEAM INVESTIGATES SCHOOL EMERGENCY PROCEDURES: 5/13, 10 PM. This investigative report revealed that many local schools do not have a plan in place to deal with medical emergencies on campus. NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS: IN YOUR COMMUNITY: 6/27, 10:30 AM. This half-hour special provided an overview of some of the major "In Your Community" stories by CBS4's Neighbors 4 Neighbors during the past year. The special profiled stories about the following: Michael Brewer, a teen burned by school mates and how the South Florida community came together to help him; a back-to-school uniform and supplies drive for children in foster care; a young boy who has created a non-profit organization to collect food for South Florida's needy; the Clydey Foundation's contribution of pet oxygen masks for the local fire department; a project to bring plush teddy bears to children in Haiti injured during the earthquake; and how a local sailing program helps disabled veterans reconnect.

ECONOMY/GOVERNMENT: Topics in this category include: missing cash in a Miami-Dade government department; local government corruption; luxury car for public official; questionable performance of federal agency; investigation of congressional candidate finances.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: I-TEAM PROBES MISSING CASH. 4/23, 10 PM. This investigative report revealed an ongoing criminal investigation by the State Attorney's office at the headquarters of the Miami-Dade Urban Search and Rescue team following the disappearance of approximately $20,000 of county funds in cash from the team's vault. The report showed that the cash is used by the team members when they travel on rescue missions where they can't use credit cards or checks for daily expenses. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: MIAMI CORRUPTION CHARGES. 5/6, 10 PM. This investigative report looked into a decision by the State Attorney's office to drop all charges filed by the City of Miami Chief of Police against four out of eight individuals previously arrested on a variety of fraud charges. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: MIAMI-DADE MAYOR'S LUXURY CAR: 5/12, 10 PM. This investigative report looked into a recent "invitation for quotes" sent by the office of Miami-Dade Mayor Carlos Alvarez to local BMW car dealers. According to the report, the luxury car is intended to be used by the Mayor primarily for personal use, but largely at county expense. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: SAFETY AGENCY ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL: 5/21, 10 PM. This investigative report questioned the relationship between the federal agency in charge of highway safety and the automotive industry and concluded that the government watchdogs were not properly doing their job. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: I-TEAM INVESTIGATES MARCO RUBIO FINANCES: 5/19, 10 PM. This investigative report looked into questionable expenses charged to the Republican Party credit cards by Republican senatorial candidate, Marco Rubio.

PUBLIC SAFETY: Topics in this category include: campaign to stop texting while driving; Gulf oil spill; and preparing for the 2010 hurricane season.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 5/2, 10:30 AM. Clay Johnson, Founder of Don't Text and Drive, Inc. discussed his non-profit organization's pledge campaign to prevent car accidents due to drivers who text on their mobile phones while driving. 5/30, 10:30 AM. Dr. Curtis McKinney, Miami-Dade College professor and oil experts discussed the impact that the oil spill in the Gulf could have on South Florida's waters. In another segment, Sam Tidwell, Chief Executive Officer, American Red Cross-South Florida Region and Enrique Rogers of Grainger discussed what South Florida resident should do to prepare for the hurricane season beginning on June 1 and how the American Red Cross of South Florida is preparing to serve the community before, during and after a storm.